Cancer patient's fundraiser for hospitals' charity

A PATIENT has raised £11,100 for King George and Queen's Hospitals Charity in a bid to give back to the hospital that treated her for breast cancer.

Mairead Gray, from Chadwell Heath, planned her Get Your Pink On party at O'Grady's pub in Seven Kings to donate towards the Cedar Centre unit at King George Hospital, Goodmayes.

The Cedar Centre provides care for day patients, and part of Mairead's donation will fund an information video for newly diagnosed cancer patients.

Local businesses pitched in prizes for the raffle.

Mairead said: "I started planning

TEAM: Mairead Gray with supporters in O'Grady's

this fundraiser because, having been through breast cancer and had such excellent care in King George and Queen's hospitals, I felt it would be nice to show how much I appreciate what the staff did for me and all the other patients they care for every day.

"The response was absolutely magnificent and I was completely overwhelmed by the amount raised."

GANG HELPED LAUNDER £6.9M FOR HACKERS

FIVE men have been jailed for a total of 28 years for their roles in a network responsible for laundering at least £6.9million stolen by international cyber criminals.

Iurie Mereacre, 37, ran the money laundering service from his home in The Broadway, Woodford Green, with his associates Iurie Bivol, 36, Serghei Bivol, 31, and Ryingota Gincota, 28.

Over three years, the group set up and controlled 400 bank accounts in a conspiracy which involved receiving stolen funds into one account, then dispersing it in smaller amounts to a number of other accounts.

This would be repeated several times to disguise the source of the money before it was transferred to cyber criminals in Eastern Europe.

Nilesh Sheth, 53, a personal banking manager at Barclays, was instrumental in the opening of a large number of the accounts, known as "mule" accounts, using false ID and address documents.

Prior to their arrests on November 3, 2016, the group was under surveillance by the National Crime Agency and was seen meeting Sheth on numerous occasions at the bank, and in public including restaurants and car parks.

On the day of the arrests, NCA officers recovered mobile phones, financial ledgers, and 70 mule packs from Mereacre's flat.

The mule packs contained ID and banking documents, bank cards and security information that enabled the group to access the accounts.

Officers also seized a handwritten guide to money laundering, which contained instructions on how to move money to accounts at banks and notes on which accounts had been blocked by bank security.

In Sheth's house in Redwoods Close, Buckhurst Hill, officers recovered £16,000 cash and nine mobile phones hidden around the house. Some phones were used to communicate with Mereacre and contained texts sent between the pair, organising meetings and payment. By this September 2017, after various hearings, all five men admitted their roles in the plot.

On Thursday, November 2 at the Old Bailey, Mereacre was sentenced to ten years in prison, while second in command, Iurie Bivol, got seven years.

Sheth, Gincota and Serghei Bivol were sentenced to four years, three years and eight months, and three years and five months respectively.

Barclays worked with the case team on the investigation which continues to be supported by the UK financial and payments sector.

Win a Gentle Grip sock prize package

WITH winter approaching, the experts in foot comfort and wellbeing at Gentle Grip are giving away four prize packages to keep your feet warm and healthy.

Gentle Grip is the leader in providing comfortable socks for those who suffer with poor circulation or diabetes.

Designed to hold without tightness, Gentle Grip socks are more comfortable for all wearers, but particularly for those with circulatory problems or swollen legs, ankles and feet.

From bamboo fibre socks that boast anti-fungal, antibacterial and hypoallergenic properties to thermal wool blends that help to keep feet warm and circulation healthy, Gentle Grip has a sock for every occasion in a wide range of colours and patterns, including plain white or black, classic stripes, argyle as well as spots and floral designs for both men and women.

With the festive season approaching, studies have found 88 per cent of Brits can walk up to five miles on average during a Christmas shopping trip, which can really take its toll on feet.

Cold weather, central heating and ill-fitting shoes and boots can all play havoc with foot health and wellbeing, but help give your feet the best start possible by choosing Gentle Grip.

To find out more or to purchase, visit www.gentlegrip.co.uk.

To win one of four prize packages, including one pair each of Gentle Grip's Wool Mens, Wool Ladies, Original Mens, Original Ladies, Bamboo Mens and Bamboo Ladies, just answer the following question.

Q: Which of Gentle Grip's socks boast anti-fungal, antibacterial and hypoallergenic properties?

A: Bamboo

B: Wool

C: Original

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to 0901 307 1684 with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YAGRIP (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge.

Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, November 16. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

New arrest over acid attack

POLICE have made a second arrest in connection with an acid attack in Walthamstow that left a delivery driver with critical injuries.

The incident happened last Thursday evening on Walpole Road.

A 16-year-old boy, arrested on Saturday, November 4, on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm, has been released under investigation.

Another boy, 14, arrested on Friday, November 3 on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm has been released under investigation.

At 6pm on November 2, a fast food delivery driver was approached by two males on a scooter as he delivered a pizza to an address on Walpole Road.

They demanded he hand over his keys but the driver refused. After a struggle he was sprayed in the face with a corrosive substance.

The delivery driver, a 32-year-old man, was wearing a helmet with the visor up and received substantial injuries to his eyes and face.

The males left on the moped. One wore a white helmet and one a black one. The delivery driver is in hospital and may lose his sight.

Detectives are investigating an incident in which a corrosive substance was thrown in the face of a delivery driver in Tottenham, after the Walthamstow incident.

Anyone with information can call police on 101, via Twitter on @MetCC or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

It's time to send us your scary stories

Remembrance Sunday service

LAINDON and District Remembrance service will be held at 3pm on Sunday, November 12, at the Laindon War Memorial situated in front of Laindon Shopping centre.

IT'S that time of year again.

The Yellow Advertiser is launching its annual Christmas ghost story competition.

If you are an aspiring writer living in Essex or east London – and you have a scary story to tell – then get typing.

Book tokens are up for grabs in the adult and children's categories. The top three stories will be published in our first edition of January 2017.

As ghouls have moved into the 21st century, along with the rest of us, judges can only accept stories via email.

The competition is open to schools, so we would like to encourage English departments to take up the challenge to grab the coveted first place for their own literary protégés.

The junior section is open to youngsters aged 16 and under.

Entries should be no more than 350 words and emailed to letters@yellowad.co.uk.

The closing date is Sunday, December 10.

Awards for volunteers

WALTHAM Forest's volunteering stars who help to make communities stronger and more integrated have been rewarded for their hard work at the Team London Awards.

Actress Dame Barbara Windsor and designer Wayne Hemingway MBE joined Deputy Mayor Joanne McCartney at the celebration and presented awards to the winners at City Hall.

Fatima Khasimi, won the Long Service Award. Fatima has volunteered for over 30 years and helped charities and community organisations in Waltham Forest. She volunteers almost every day and has worked with marginalised and disadvantaged adults, young people, homeless and disabled residents, bereaved individuals and those suffering from trauma.

Dolores Brown, of Age UK, won a Supporting and Inspiring Award. For the past 16 years, Dolores has volunteered for Age UK Waltham Forest and visits and befriends isolated and housebound people.

Kelmscott School won a Community Action School Award for its female genital mutilation project.

Young Ambassadors of Kelmscott School have taken on the issue of FGM in their school and community. After hearing the personal story of local campaigner Hibo Wadere, students raised awareness of the issue.

They also hosted an anti-FGM conference, Rise Against FGM, with two other schools.

Now in its sixth year, the awards recognise the dedication and commitment of more than 375 volunteers from across the capital.

Crash driver failed to stop

POLICE are appealing for information after a fail-to-stop road crash.

At 5.50pm on Thursday, November 2, a silver Ford Focus – index AV03FVD – was in collision with a moped in Fenton Way, Laindon, Essex.

The car was travelling along Victoria Road when it pulled out and knocked a 39-year-old man off his machine.

The driver got out the car, spoke to a group of people and ran away, leaving the vehicle and the rider on the ground.

The victim was taken to hospital with severe bruising and later released.

Anyone with information can call PC Roy Levett on 101, quoting incident 816 of 02/11, or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Crews tackle fire in industrial generator

MORE than 20 fire-fighters were scrambled to a street in Rainham on Monday following reports of a major fire.

Four fire engines were sent to Coldharbour Lane after a fire broke out in an industrial generator.

Twenty-one fire-fighters – from Wennington, Barking and Dagenham – went to the incident reported at 8.55am on Monday, November 6. By 10.39am they had the blaze under control.

An investigation has been launched into the cause of the fire.
